

Philanthropy at a Crossroads

Perspectives from the Field

Monday, October 25

3:30 – 4:30 pm, Aldrich 111

Gerald Chertavian Founder and CEO, Year Up

Steve McCormick President, Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation

Tom Tierney Chairman and Co-founder, The Bridgespan Group

Prof. Herman B. “Dutch” Leonard, moderator Faculty Co-Chair, Social Enterprise Initiative

Fundamental shifts taking place in philanthropy are being driven by a new brand of philanthropist whose results-focused orientation is fostering the development of new approaches toward addressing the challenging social issues confronting society. This panel of philanthropic and nonprofit leaders will explore emerging trends, lessons learned along the way, and their theories and aspirations for increasing the rate and scale of social change.

THIS IS

social enterprise...

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE INITIATIVE | LEADERSHIP AND VALUES COMMITTEE