Dear mentor volunteers -

Thank you for volunteering to participate in the 2010 Healthcare Student-Alumni Mentor Program! We’re thrilled about your willingness to engage with HBS students.

The students will soon select alumni whom they feel would be a good fit for them. We will process the matches and be in touch with you again near the end of October.

Thank you again for volunteering. This program works best when there is a diverse group of alumni working in all sectors of the healthcare industry. Your participation has helped us achieve that goal.

Thank you,

Richard Hamermesh, HBS Healthcare Initiative Faculty Chair
Cara Sterling, HBS Healthcare Initiative Director
Erin Duffy, HBS Healthcare Initiative Coordinator
Manoj Patel, VP Alumni, HBS Healthcare Club
Jon Puz, VP School and Student Relations, HBS Health Industry Alumni Association

HBS HEALTHCARE INITIATIVE

The Healthcare Initiative at Harvard Business School is a multidisciplinary program dedicated to innovative thinking in the healthcare industry. Launched in 2005, the Initiative brings together the extensive research, thought leadership, and interest in the business and management of healthcare that exists at HBS.

For more information on the Healthcare Initiative, see our web site: www.hbs.edu/healthcare.

If you do not wish to receive periodic updates from the HBS Healthcare Initiative, please send an email to healthcare_initiative@hbs.edu, with "UNSUBSCRIBE" in the subject line.