

Outside Activities -- Alberto Cavallo

This document contains a list of professional activities beyond my main employment at Harvard University. Please feel free to contact me with any questions about this disclosure statement.

Last updated March 2025.

Outside activities since 2018, paid and unpaid:

- [2011 – Present] PriceStats LLC, Founder and majority shareholder. I receive compensation only through annual income distributions.
- [2014 – Present] Research Fellow, National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER) (unpaid)
- [2015 – Present] US Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) - Technical Advisory Committee (unpaid)
- [2020 – Present] Editorial Board - Review of Income and Wealth (unpaid)
- [2022 – Present] Next Bretton Woods Group, Member – Peterson Institute for International Economics (unpaid)

Honoraria for papers and presentations

- I was paid an honorarium for my role as an author of the paper “More Amazon Effects: Online Competition and Pricing Behaviors.” Jackson Hole Economic Symposium Conference Proceedings (Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City) (2019).
- I was paid an honorarium for my role as a co-author of the paper “Inflation and Misallocation in New Keynesian Models.” (pdf) In ECB Forum on Central Banking 26-28 June 2023, Sintra, Portugal: Macroeconomic Stabilisation in a Volatile Inflation Environment. European Central Bank, 2023

Paid speeches and executive education:

- HBS Executive Education (various years)
- State Street presentations (via PriceStats LLC)

Case writing royalties:

- As part of my work at Harvard Business School, I regularly write cases for class discussion, and some of those cases are about companies. I receive no compensation from these companies, and the cases are not meant as endorsements of the managers or their strategies. I receive royalties (currently less than $1000 per year) for cases I have written while employed at Harvard.