The Role of Business in Society

- Only business can create prosperity
- Healthy businesses need a healthy community

BUT

- There is a growing awareness of major societal challenges
- Companies are increasingly perceived to be prospering at the expense of the broader community
- Business increasingly is seen as a major cause of social, environmental, and economic problems
- Government and civil society often attempt to address societal issues at the expense of business

- Despite growing corporate citizenship activities, the legitimacy of business has fallen

The Role of a Company in Its Communities

The Concept of Shared Value

Shared Value: Corporate policies and practices that enhance competitiveness of the company while simultaneously advancing social and economic conditions in the communities in which it operates

- Create economic value by creating societal value
 - What is good for the community is good for business
- All profit is not equal. Profit involving shared value enables society to advance and companies to grow faster

The Concept of Shared Value

Shared Value: Corporate policies and practices that enhance competitiveness of the company while simultaneously advancing social and economic conditions in the communities in which it operates

- Create economic value by creating societal value
 - What is good for the community is good for business
- All profit is not equal. Profit involving shared value enables society to advance and companies to grow faster

- Concern with societal issues will be a defining characteristic of the post-crisis era
- Incorporating societal issues into strategy and operations is the next major transformation in management thinking
- Shared value represents the next evolution of capitalism

Moving to Shared Value

- Values: “doing good,” good citizenship, philanthropy, and sustainability
- Discretionary
- Separate from profit maximization
- Agenda externally determined
- Impact is limited by the corporate footprint and CSR budget

- Value: economic and societal benefits relative to cost
- Integral to competing
- Essential to profit maximization
- Agenda is business specific
- Mobilizes the entire company budget

Example: Fair trade purchasing

Example: Transforming procurement to increase quality and yield

In both cases, compliance with laws and ethical standards and reducing harm for corporate activities are assumed

Business and Society: Why the Disconnect?

- Companies adopted a narrow model of economic value creation
 - Meeting conventional needs of conventional customers
 - Driving revenue through acquisitions instead of new business creation
 - Profit improvement through downsizing, outsourcing, relocating, and globalizing
 - Emphasis on capital structure instead of real value creation
 - Societal issues treated as outside the scope of business

- Huge societal needs go unmet
- Growth and innovation suffer

Societal Needs and Economic Value Creation

- Social deficits create economic cost
- External conditions shape internal company productivity
- Social needs represent the largest market opportunities
- There is a growing congruence between economic value creation and societal objectives

Levels of Shared Value

- Reconceiving customer needs, products, and markets
- Redefining productivity in the value chain
 - How the organization conducts its business
- Enabling local cluster development

Reconceiving Products and Markets

- Design products and services to address societal needs
 - E.g., environmental impact, safety, health, education, nutrition, living with disability, housing, financial security
- Open new markets by serving unmet needs in underserved communities
 - Often requires redesigned products or different distribution methods
- Businesses have the potential to be more effective than governments and NGOs in creating and marketing solutions to community problems

- New needs and new markets open up opportunities to differentiate, innovate, and grow
- A new generation of social entrepreneurs is capturing these opportunities, often faster than mainstream businesses

Discovering Product and Market Opportunities to Create Shared Value

- Redefine the business around unsolved customer problems or concerns, not traditional product definitions
 - Or the customer's customer
- Think in terms of improving lives, not just meeting consumer needs
- Identify customer groups that have been poorly served or overlooked by the industry's products
- Start with no preconceived constraints about product attributes, channel configuration, or the economic model of the business (e.g., small loans are unprofitable)

Redefining Productivity in the Value Chain

- Purchasing
- Resource use
- Energy use
- Logistical efficiency
- Employee productivity
- Location of facilities and the supply chain

Identifying Opportunities for Shared Value in Mining

The Value Chain

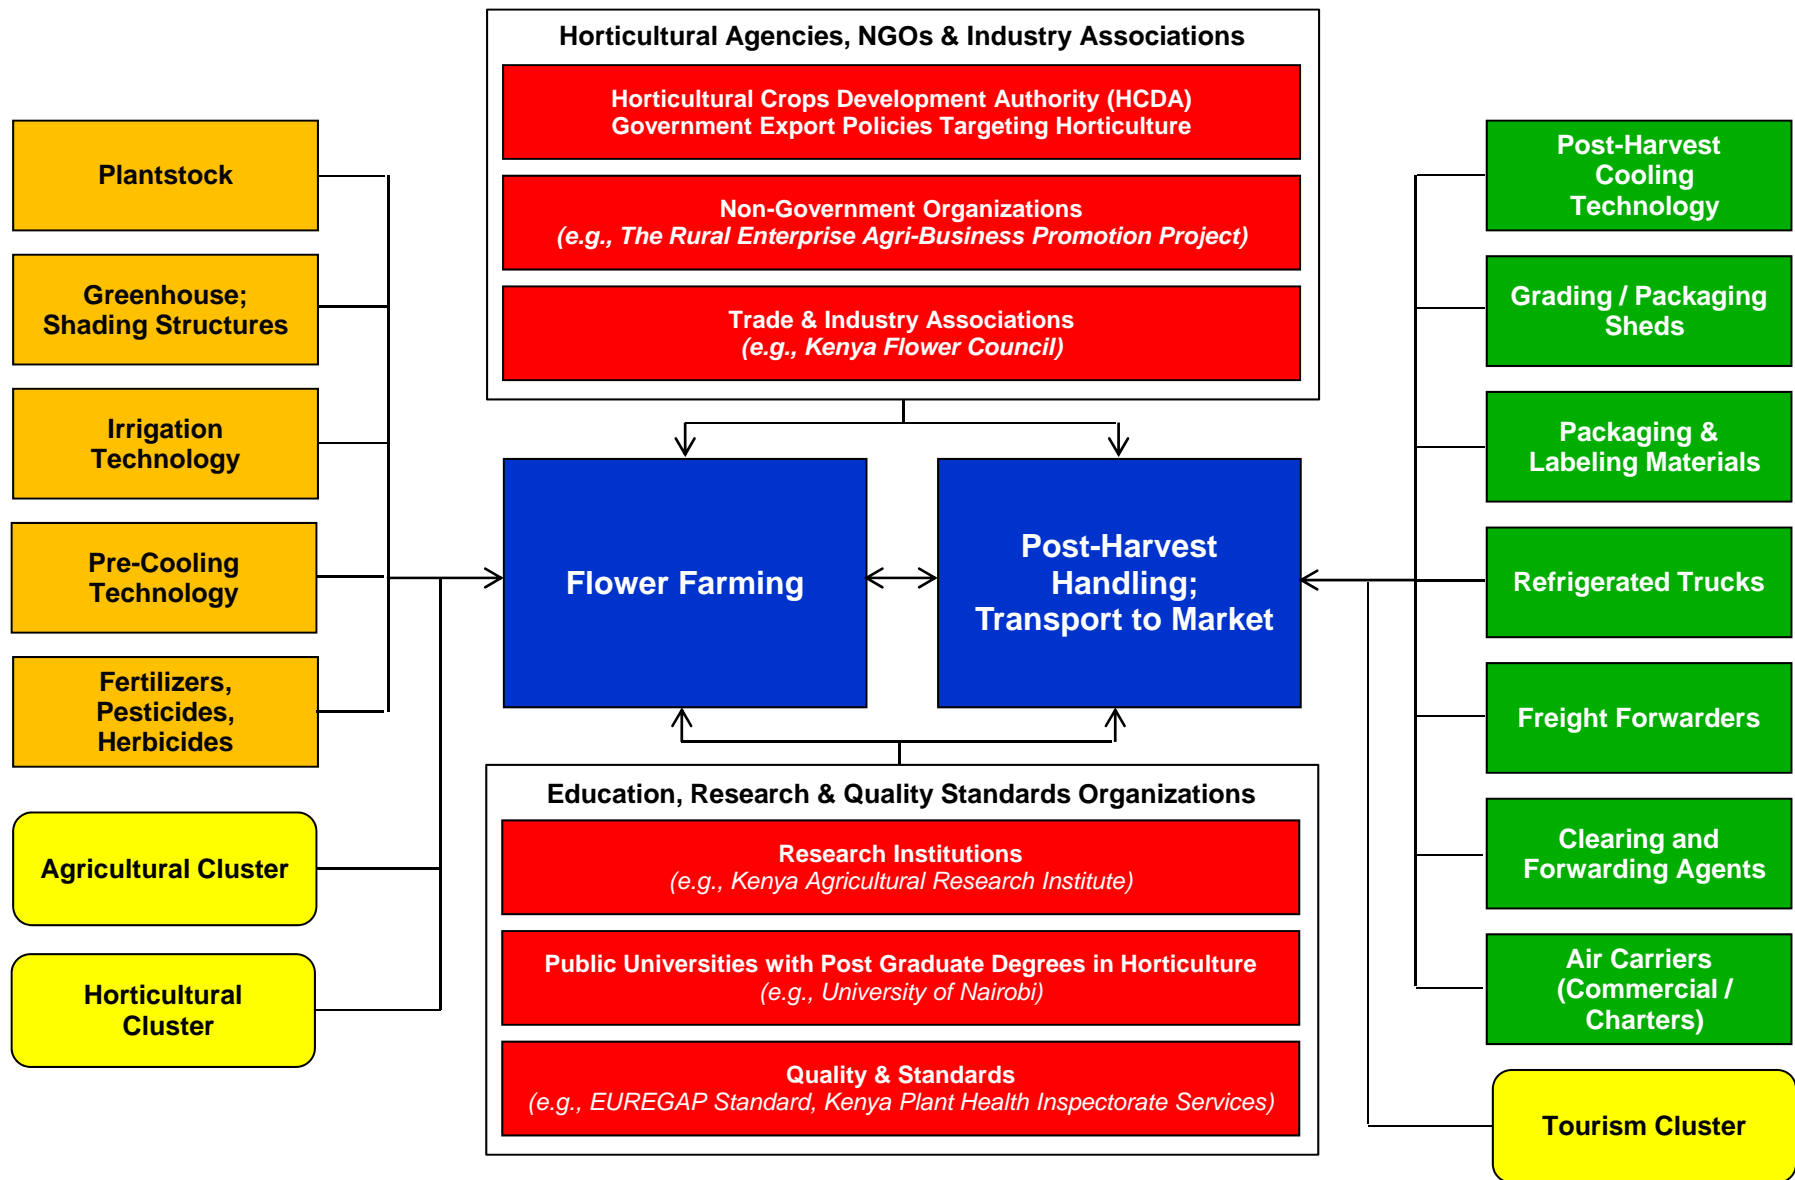

Cluster Development in the Company's Major Locations

- A strong local cluster improves company growth and productivity
 - Local suppliers
 - Supporting institutions and infrastructure
 - Related businesses
- Companies, working collaboratively, can catalyze major improvements in the local cluster and business environment
- Local cluster development strengthens the link between a company's success and community success

Creating Shared Value: Deciding Where to Concentrate

Nestlé

- Opportunities to create shared value are inevitably tied closely to a company's particular businesses

Measuring Shared Value

Creating Shared Value

Implications for Government and Civil Society

- Government and NGOs often assume that trade-offs between economic and social benefits are inevitable

- Government and NGOs will be most effective if they enable shared value by business
- NGOs bring unique expertise, implementation capacity, and relationships of trust with communities

A New Type of NGO

TechnoServe	Promotes the development of agricultural clusters in more than 30 countries
RootCapital	Provides financing to more than 400,000 farmers and businesses
Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation	Forms partnerships with global corporations to foster agricultural clusters

- Governments should make platform investments in public assets and infrastructure to enable shared value by business
- Government should regulate in a way that reinforces and rewards shared value in business, rather than working against it

Adding a Social Dimension to Strategy

- Shared value opens up new needs, new markets, and new value chain configurations
- This creates new strategic positions, and new opportunities for extending existing positioning

- Companies should incorporate a social dimension to their value proposition
- Shared value can reinforce and even anchor a company's strategy
- The social dimension of strategy can be more sustainable vs. competitors than conventional cost and quality advantages
